Numb. 13632.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday March 15, to Tuesday March 18, 1794.

Whitehall, March 16.

THE following are Extracts of a Letter from Major-General Williamson to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and of one inclosed therein from Lieutenant-Colonel Whitelocke, received this Day.

Extract of a Letter from Major-General Adam Williamson to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, dated King's House, Jamaica, February 9, 1794.

I Have the Honor to send herewith an Extract of a Letter from Colonel Whitelocke, with the Particulars of the Capture of Cape Tiburon. The Business was spirited and well done.

This Post is of the utmost Importance; it secures the Passage, and, with Cape Nichola Mole, commands that fine extensive Bay.

It has also drove the Brigands as far back as Anx Cayes, which leaves the Parishes of the Grand Ance in the most perfect Security.

The Trade between this Island and St. Domingue is already prodigious; and the Quantity of Produce brought here will, I hope, on it's Arrival in Great Britain, add considerably to the Revenue.

Extract of a Letter from Lieutenant-Colonel Whitelock, of the 13th Regiment, commanding at Jeremie, to Major-General Williamson, dated Europa, off Tiburon, February 3, 1794.

THE Commodore and his Squadron called at Jeremie on the Morning of the 31st Ultimo; the Troops were immediately embarked, and the whole sailed in the Evening.

We did not arrive off Tiburon till the Evening of the 2d, when the Three Frigates anchored near to the Shore, in the Ance du Mitau.

The Enemy were strong, and seemed to wait our Landing; but, after a few Broadsides from the Ships the Beach appeared to be clear, and just before Dark I ordered the Flank Companies to land, and take Possession of a House about 150 Paces from the Beach, and well situated for Defence, and to protect the Landing of the Whole.

Major Spencer commanded the Flank Companies, and was not annoyed till the Moment the Boats grounded, when the Brigands appeared in Line on the Beach, and fired on the Troops, who, by the Major's Orders, were on Shore in an Instant, charged, and in a Minute routed the Enemy and surrounded the Post.

I landed at Day-Light with the 13th and 29th, the Marines, and British Legion, and found that the Brigands had evacuated all the Posts, and escaped towards Aux Cayes, by the Mountain Road, without burning or destroying Property of any Description.

The Numbers of the Enemy were about 650 Blacks and 200 Mulattoes and Whites, very strongly posted. About 150 more surrendered themselves, and remain. I understand 50 of them were killed and wounded.

I have only to add on this Subject, that the Conduct of Major Spencer was highly honorable to him, and he was handsomely supported by the Officers and Men of the Flank Companies.

I have left Lieutenant Baskerfield to command, with 50 Men of the 13th, the Colonial Troops, and Jean Kino's Corps from Irois.

The Post of Irois being no longer necessary, I have directed it to be dismantled.

The Enemy are now shut out of our Possessions, there being no Post of Consequence within 60 Miles of Tiburon.
